

Saratoga's Great Ladies

This is the first in a series of books about the people who took Saratoga's gracious Victorian houses and made them homes.

From bankers and brokers to shysters; industrialists and inventors to gamblers; and from a saint to sinners, over the years Saratoga has been home to them all.

While some families left compelling tales waiting to be told, others lived simpler, more mundane lives. In this book we learn about at least one family that lived in each of the "Great Ladies" still surviving on Broadway, Franklin Square, State Street and Greenfield Ave.

This book can be used as a self-guided walking tour or just enjoyed as a glimpse into Saratoga's colorful past.

Hollis Palmer Ph.D. is the author of six true crime books in which all the stories are based in Victorian Era. A book about bankers, brokers, and industrialists was a natural shift from true crime.
